

fermata arts foundation

Dedicated to promoting peace through arts and culture

“Cultural Development and Environmental Safety”

America and Young Countries

An Introduction of Fermata's Home Town

A new spectrum of communication

*Brandon Robertson
Town Manager
Town of Avon*

FAF's poster presentation

- On September 24, 2012 – meeting – town manager's office
- 15 posters from the series, “American Town / City Administrators – World Leaders for Strategic Planning for Local Government”
- Lack of strategic planning: balancing short-run performance and longer term prospects for town / city administration (a book “The Trouble with Strategy...” by Kim Warren) – presented by T. Ishutkina

Conclusion:

- Fermata - A series of books about New England cities and towns with a focus on their architecture and historical ornaments through monuments
- Themes of the meeting will be included in this series of books
- Development of recommendations for strategic planning in the Investment and Cultural Clubs (ICCs): “Only an environmentally safe country may be attractive for investments” (from the FAF's Memorandum “Investment and Cultural Club”)

*Tatyana Ishutkina Executive Director Fermata Arts
Foundation*

Non-profit organization Fermata Arts Foundation
is open for grants and partnership (<http://fermata-arts.org/participate.html>)

<http://fermata-arts.org> and <http://ge-fermata-arts.org/> and <http://ua-fermata-arts.org/>

fermata arts foundation

Dedicated to promoting peace through arts and culture

“Cultural Development and Environmental Safety”

An Introduction of Fermata's Home Town

America and Young Countries

A new spectrum of communication

FAF's Poster Presentation - Investment and Cultural Clubs:
Working visit of V. Chayka, Mayor of Mykolayiv, Ukraine to America

Brandon Robertson
Town Manager
Town of Avon

- On September 24, 2012 – meeting – town manager's office
- Working visits between countries will take place
- Brandon Robertson, Avon Town Manager, expressed his support to welcome city administration representatives from young countries in their working visits to the U.S.
- Fermata proposes to other town / city administrations to participate
- Working visit of the Mayor of Mykolayiv is planned for 2 weeks. Financial part of the visit is addressed by the institutions in his country
- A specific program for working visits with detalization of financial part and time schedule will be developed by the FAF on an individual basis and will be confirmed by all interested parties one month prior to the specific visit

Conclusion:

- Fermata – All aspects which Mayor of Mykolayiv would like to address during his working visit are documented through protocols with the institutions that the Mayor would like to visit
- Development of recommendations for strategic planning in the Investment and Cultural Clubs (ICCs): “Environmental security is the basis of national and international security” (from the FAF's Memorandum “Investment and Cultural Club”)

Tatyana Ishutkina
Executive Director Fermata
Arts Foundation

Non-profit organization Fermata Arts Foundation
is open for grants and partnership (<http://fermata-arts.org/participate.html>)

<http://fermata-arts.org> and <http://ge-fermata-arts.org/> and <http://ua-fermata-arts.org/>

fermata arts foundation

Dedicated to promoting peace through arts and culture

America and Young Countries

A new spectrum of communication

FAF's poster presentation:

Investment and Cultural Clubs: Ecology

- On September 24, 2012 – meeting – town manager's office
- 15 posters from the series, "American Town / City Administrators – World Leaders for Strategic Planning for Local Government"
- Alice Pentz, Reference and Adult Services Manager, Avon Free Public Library, suggested: Fermata Arts Foundation to participate in the Connecticut Libraries annual symposium in April of 2013

Conclusion:

- Fermata - A series of books about New England cities and towns with a focus on their architecture and historical ornaments through monuments
- A series of practical assignments to form strategic planning for an individual library user, a librarian, a library director
- Materials from these assignments will be included in this series of books
- Development of recommendations for strategic planning in the Investment and Cultural Clubs (ICCs): "In the XXI century, cultural development should not run counter to environmental safety." (from the FAF's Memorandum "Investment and Cultural Club")

An Introduction of Fermata's Home Town

Non-profit organization Fermata Arts Foundation
is open for grants and partnership (<http://fermata-arts.org/participate.html>)

<http://fermata-arts.org> and <http://ge-fermata-arts.org/> and <http://ua-fermata-arts.org/>

fermata arts foundation

Dedicated to promoting peace through arts and culture

“Cultural Development and Environmental Safety”

An Introduction of Fermata's Home Town

America and Young Countries

A new spectrum of communication

FAF's poster presentation:

Investment and Cultural Clubs: Ecology

- On September 24, 2012 – meeting – town manager's office
- 15 posters from the series, “American Town / City Administrators – World Leaders for Strategic Planning for Local Government”
- Alice Pentz, Reference and Adult Services Manager, Avon Free Public Library, suggested:
 - An expansion of a pool to generate ideas from four participants at the meeting (B. Robertson, A. Pentz, T. Ishutkina, N. Synkov) to a community forum

Conclusion:

- Fermata - A series of books about New England cities and towns with a focus on their architecture and historical ornaments through monuments
- Fermata's proposal: On a weekly basis to organize presentations in the Library Community Room with the presentations from the Avon Community. Presentations are prepared by the Avon residents. Topic is defined by a volunteer – presenter. Advertising is provided by the library. FAF makes short videos (5-10 minutes) of the presentations for posting on its website.

Non-profit organization Fermata Arts Foundation
is open for grants and partnership (<http://fermata-arts.org/participate.html>)

<http://fermata-arts.org> and <http://ge-fermata-arts.org/> and <http://ua-fermata-arts.org/>

fermata arts foundation

Dedicated to promoting peace through arts and culture

“Cultural Development and Environmental Safety”

America and Young Countries

An Introduction of Fermata's Home Town

A new spectrum of communication

FAF's poster presentation:

Investment and Cultural Clubs: Ecology

- › On September 24, 2012 – meeting – town manager's office
- › 15 posters from the series, “American Town / City Administrators – World Leaders for Strategic Planning for Local Government”
- › Alice Pentz, Reference and Adult Services Manager, Avon Free Public Library, suggested:
 - › To develop a mechanism for earning graduate credits through collaborative activities with young countries

Conclusion:

- › Fermata - A series of books about New England cities and towns with a focus on their architecture and historical ornaments through monuments
- › Fermata proposal: To develop and form a leadership doctoral program for town / city and library administrators with dissertation thesis defense in the countries of the post-soviet space. To confirm this program with the appropriate universities.
- › Young countries as a source of clean water. Young countries are the oldest civilized areas in the world have a special obligation to foster the development and translation of promising new cultural programs in order to serve the public interest and benefit society
- › Independence from the Empire is required a different vision for the cultural and educational aspects of life in young countries

Non-profit organization Fermata Arts Foundation

is open for grants and partnership (<http://fermata-arts.org/participate.html>)

<http://fermata-arts.org> and <http://ge-fermata-arts.org/> and <http://ua-fermata-arts.org/>